Stewart House Pyjama Day

Dear families,

As NSW public education's charity of choice, Stewart House has been providing care since 1931 for children-in-need from all parts of NSW and the ACT.

Each year 1,700 public school children-in-need come to Stewart House from many parts of NSW and the ACT. During their 12 day stay at Stewart House, children are provided with medical, dental and optometric assessment and treatment. These services are provided free of charge to the children who attend this unique facility.

To support this wonderful charity, we are joining in on the pyjama day!!

When: Wednesday, 6th August

What: Wear pyjamas to school! You will need to be wearing school appropriate shoes (not slippers or ugg boots)

Cost: Gold coin donation...or more if you are able.

All proceeds will be sent to Stewart House Charity.
